► James Witz, Jessica Pizzutelli and Colton Long of Littler Mendelson get a runners-up nod for securing a preliminary injunction for mortgage lending client loanDepot in a federal trade secret suit against rival CrossCountry Mortgage and six former employees. U.S. District Judge Edmond Chang issued the injunction this week after a forensic review the court ordered found “many thousands of documents taken from loanDepot and held by CrossCountry in its own internal systems.” The ruling bars CrossCountry and the individual defendants from accessing or using loanDepot documents and data and from contacting loanDepot customers whose information the former employees took with them.
